A) On a separate paper, please share pertinent information about yourself regarding the following, please be specific (5 points each):

- 1) Community Service/Volunteer Evolvment Performed
- 2) Educational/Trade School goals for next few years?
- 3) Extracurricular Activities (hobbies, talents, interests, etc.)

B) Submit a copy of your college/trade school acceptance letter (5 points).

C) Please communicate THREE ideas (approx. 100 words each) that focus on the following quote and call for action (10 points each; grammar, sentence structure; and understandable/readable writing does matter):

“So while once we asked,
how could we possibly prevail over catastrophe?
Now we assert
How could catastrophe possibly prevail over us?
We will not march back to what was but move to what shall be”. ~ Amanda Gorman “The Hill We Climb”

- 1) This has truly been a very trying year on everyone. COVID has brought many changes and challenges. What do you feel was the most challenging part of the past year for you?

2) Have you “prevailed” over this challenge, and how?

3) Amanda Gorman states that we should not “march back” but “move to what shall be”. How would you advise someone who was struggling with the challenges and changes of the past year to “move to what shall be” and find growth from this past year?
